

MARIAN LUKAN

PRODUCER

PROFILE

I am a producer with extensive experience across commercial, television, and film production in Austria and Ukraine. Over the past four years working in Vienna, together with several key production roles in Kyiv, I've developed strong expertise in full-cycle production, post-production supervision, and close collaboration with major agencies. Recently, I've been integrating AI tools into production workflows and creating vertical-format content tailored for digital platforms. My background includes commercial campaigns, TV shows, documentaries, and feature films. I bring creative problem-solving, technical adaptability, and strong organizational skills to deliver high-quality content from concept to final release.
